Wood Wanted.

Those indebted to the Oregon REPUBLICAN will confer a favor by furnishing us some wood, which will be as good as cash to us.

County Court met on Monday. No business of importance came before it. Circuit Court meets Monday April 24th.

The weather for the past week has been pleasant, and the farmers are busy putting in their spring crops. Business in town has consequently been dull.

We notice, among other new articles, at the store of Mr. T. B. Newman, some of the patent American Broom. These are a great accession to the culinary department, and will be highly prized by all housekeepers.

The company of gentlemen who left here some time since to search for places to locate in Eastern Oregon, have returned for their families. They have located on Little Willow Creek, about 80 miles south of the Dalles, between there and Okech.

Thanks. The friends of young Nichols desire to notice in a public manner the conduct of Henry Cooper, one of the lads who was with Linn when he was injured, for his prompt action in sending for aid, and in taking care of Linn until assistance came. Though quite young, he exhibited more coolness and presence of mind than is frequently met with, even in older persons.

We acknowledge the receipt of several pieces of nice wedding cake from the parties whose marriage we announce to-day, and as we discussed the merits of the cake, many were the good wishes that went out of our office for their happy pair. All joined in wishing that their life might be a continuous honeymoon, that they might, among Amarantine bowers, find a haven of bliss, and that a lake of ice cream bordered with frosted cake, might be there to tempt their appetites.

There will be a public examination of those wishing to apply for certificates for teaching in Polk County to-day. We sincerely hope there may be a fair representation of the teachers of the County present, and that some steps may be taken for the formation of a County Teachers Association. The teachers of Yamhill, Marion, and other counties are waking up to the advantages of such a move, and are profiting thereby. It lends an interest to the cause of education, and also gives zest to the life of the teacher.

The examination and other closing exercises of the school yesterday, passed off to the gratification of all present, and to the credit of all concerned. The scholars evinced a thorough knowledge of their studies as far as they had gone, and their prompt answers and explanations showed that the teachers had not been negligent of their duty. The school will resume its session after a short vacation. We learn that it is uncertain whether the present teachers, Mr. Oglesby and Miss Clara Watt, remain longer or not. We think, however, it would be difficult to obtain others who would satisfy the people here as well as they have done.

FROM BRAZIL.

A young and lovely daughter of a Brazilian nobleman in Rio de Janeiro, acknowledging receipt of a case of MURRAY & LAMAR'S FLU-IDA WATER says: "This perfume is not new to me. I have long used it at the toilet and in the bath and have always found it only the most agreeable, but also the most lasting and refreshing of Florida Waters."

There are counterfeits, and buyers should always ask for and be sure they get the Florida Water prepared by LAMAR & KEMP, N. Y.

A MEDICINE

for our mothers, wives, and sisters. A highly respectable lady of Stockton, Cal., says: "My strength was exhausted, stomach enfeebled, and fast settling into dyspepsia, afflicted with intense pain, inability to walk, loss of spirits and no enjoyment in life. I used Bristol's Sasaparilla as directed in the Almanac, and experienced a complete cure."

Catarrh is a common disease, so common that snuffing and "hawking" reach you at every turn. Your foot slips in its nasty discharge, in the omnibus or in church, and speech disgusts at the lecture or concert. The propriety of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy offers $500 for a case of Catarrh that he cannot cure. Sold by druggists or sent 60 cents to Dr. B. V.
Pierce, 133 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y., and you will receive it by mail. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. The Genuine has Dr. Pierce's private U. S. Government Stamp on it.

Telegraphic Summary.

HARTFORD, April 8.—All the towns are in but 12. Estimating these at last year's vote Jewell's majority will be 80 Kellogg is electe to Congress in the 2d district by 53 majority. Present total —Jewell 45,784; English, 45,674.
Jewell's majority, 110. The towns to hear from are Doran, Columbia, Union, Warren and Harland. These towns voting as last year Jewell's majority will be 104.

Kellogg, Republican, is elected to Congress in the Second District by 20 majority.—The Senate now stands 13 Republican to 8 Democrats. The House will be Republican by a small majority.
London, April 3.—1 P. M.—The Paris Commune had issued a decree ar-raigning Thiers, Picard, Favre, Dufour, Simon and Pithou before the tribunal of the people, and ordering their property to be seized.

Washington, April 3.—In the Senate Sherman's resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee to report a bill to abolish the Ku Klux, being under consideration, Blair argued that the measure was an assumption of the power of Congress to punish a violation of a State law. The House spent the entire day and evening session in the discussion of the bill.

San Francisco, April 4.—The Board of Supervisors last evening adopted a resolution accepting Col. Von Schmidt's proposition to introduce water from Lake Tahoe, furnishing the city 4,000, 000 gallons daily for 40 years, in return for 5,000,000 six per cent. bonds, delivered when they supply the city.

A proposition to have a committee appointed to examine Blue Lake and report on a plan for bringing water to the city, was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Washington, April 3.—Alluding to the reconstruction acts Blair said that wherever the Supreme Court had any authority to pass upon any case connected with them it invariably pronounced them unconstitutional, and passed an act to prevent the Supreme Court from passing upon its reconstruction measures. He said the Democratic party, while it believed these acts to be unconstitutional, did not, as had been charged, unite to overthrow them by force. The only means to which Democrats would resort were constitutional means.

Scott, interrupting, quoted from the Broadhead letter of Blair that the President elect should disperse the carpetbaggers by force.

Blair said he was not the Democratic party, and the Democratic party was not Blair, and he repeated that the Democratic party had never threatened to use violent means to overthrow the constitutional acts of Congress. He (Blair) believed that the President, having taken an oath to support the Constitution, should stand it whether against Congress or against individuals; for he believed that Congress, violating the Constitution, was no more than a mob.

He said that an army could be made to undo the work of usurpation, but no force would be necessary; if the army was withdrawn, the infamous carpet-bag government would fall of itself.
He charged that the Republicans of North Carolina during the Presidential canvass of 1868 had, in an address, advised negroes to burn the barns of people who despised them on account of their politics.

Poole (interrupting) said the address bore on such construction, and no sensible man could take that view of it.

Blair said it was so regarded at the time, and he reviewed at length the condition of affairs in North and South Carolina, alleging that corruption, fraud and villainy reigned supreme. He quoted from the Republican papers of South Carolina articles severely commenting on the villainy of the Legislature, and also quoted the remarks of Gov. Scott, "that one of the greatest curse afflicting South Carolina was a herd of unscrupulous adventures from the North, coming there for plunder."

Sherman admitted that the Legislature of South Carolina had behaved shamefully, but that unless the Senator proposed some remedy, he had no right to bring the matter in here.

Blair said he had a right to arraign this body for destroying local self government.

Sawyer said everyone voted in South Carolina, and there were not over 2,500 in the State debarred from holding office under the 14th amendment; but the position of the Democratic party in South Carolina was such that no considerable number would accept a profiler of office, being influenced by the position of the Democratic party in the North, and by the Broadhead letter of the Senator to refuse office.

Blair continued reviewing the condition of other Southern States, crime in which he said had been enormously increased under Republican rule. Referring to the Yegger case which had been brought into the discussion by Sherman, Blair read from the statement of counsel to prove that the case had been kept out of the Supreme Court for fear of the reconstruction Act under which Yegger was committed, would be declared unconstitutional.
Without concluding his speech, Blair gave way for an executive session, after which the Senate adjourned.

ORIGIN OF LONGFELLOW'S EVAN- GELINE.

Hawthorne dined one day with Longfellow, and brought with him a friend from Salem. After dinner the friend said, "I have been trying to persuade Hawthorne to write a story based upon a legend of Acadie and still current there; the legend of a girl, who, in the dispersion of the Acadians was separated from her lover, and passed her life in awaiting and seeking for him and only found him dying in a hospital, when both were old." Longfellow wondered that his legend did not strike the fancy of Hawthorne, and said to him; "If you have really made up your mind not to use it for a story, will you give it to me for a poem?" To this Hawthorne assented, and moreover promised not to treat the subject in prose till Longfellow saw what he could do with it in verse.
And so we have "Evangeline" in beautiful hexameters—a poem that will hold its place in literature while true affection lasts. Hawthorne rejoiced in this great success of Longfellow, and loved to count up the edition, both foreign and American, of this now world-renowned poem.—James T. Fields.

Man as a Barometer and Thermometer. Science has failed to invent apparatus as sensitive to atmospheric changes as the human frame. It is therefore of vital importance to guard it against the effect of variations in the weather, and experience has demonstrated that Dr. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS is the best medicine for this purpose at present known.
If taken as a protection against the disturbing influence of sudden alterations of heat and cold, it will certainly prevent the bowel complaint, fever, bilious disorders, rheumatic affections, and throat disease, arising from these causes.
